NEW EDITION (Third).—George Allen, Sunnyside, Orpington, Kent, 1880, pp. xvi. 222. With new Preface dated "Brantwood, February 25th, 1880." Some short notes are added.

Some copies contain (and all should contain) an added "Advice" regarding the Aphorisms and Errata, printed on a separate leaf and occupying one page, dated "Brantwood, Coniston, May 26, 1880."

"The quite first Edition, with the original plates, will always, I venture to say, bear a high price in the market; for its etchings were not only, every line of them, by my own hand, but bitten also by myself, with savage carelessness (I being then, as now, utterly scornful of all sorts of art dependent on blotch, or burr, or any other 'process' than that of steady hand and true line): out of which disdain, nevertheless, some of the plates came into effects both right and good for their purpose, and will, as I say, be always hereafter valuable."

"Some pieces of rabid and utterly false Protestantism are cut out, from Text and Appendix alike, and may serve still to give the old editions some value yet, in the eyes of book-collectors." —Preface to the Edition of 1880.
