LECTORI BENEVOLO S.P.D.

AM anni amplius viginti sunt ex quo Anthologia illa cui Flosculi Graeci Boreales nomen inditum est in lucem prodiit: quorum novam emittere seriem iis saepenumero in animo erat qui deinceps sub Academiae nostrae umbra Graecis litteris incubuerunt, quo apertius significaretur nondum ardorem illum ingenii Aberdonensem deferbusse, neque Devae Donaeque nemora omnino deseruisse Musas.

Namque hercule nunquam deerant inter nostros, etiam tum in incude studiorum positos, qui Graecis capti Camenis, veterumque poetarum spiritu aliquantulum instincti, priorum vestigiis ingrederentur; nobis autem, ut ille flosculos e Musarum hortulis decerpendi iucundissimus fuisset labor, ita inter cotidianas iuventutis erudiendae curas parum suppetebat otii, resque in aliud usque tempus differebatur.

At cum in eo esset Academia nostra ut natalicias quarti saeculi sui celebraret ferias, abiecta tandem cunctatione visum est qualemcunque hanc versuum contexere corollam, frontique Almae nostrae Matris, liberalium nutrici studiorum, cum amore gratisque animis praepondere.

GRATIAS agere velimus Ludovico Morris, Andreae Lang, Henrico Newbolt, Algernoni C. Swinburne, qui pro sua singulari comitate locos quosdam e libris suis delectos potestatem nobis fecerint hoc in opusculo publicandi: nec non Duglassio Strachan, viro amicissimo, qui Musae figuram primore in libro arte exquisita depinxerit.

Porro quod nobis permiserunt ut ex operibus poetarum nostratum quibus usus esset excerpteremus: Macmillan et Sociis, carminum Alfredi Baronis Tennyson, Matthaei Arnold, Eduardi FitzGerald; Kegan Paul, Trench, Trübner et Sociis, Eduardi Arnold; Longmans, Green, et Sociis, Roberti L. Stevenson; Joanni Lane, Ricardi Le Gallienne; Gulielmo Blackwood et Filiis, Georgii Eliot, curatoribus maximaee nobis gratiae reddendae sunt.

ULYSSES.

It little profits that an idle king,
By this still hearth, among these barren crags,
Match'd with an aged wife, I mete and dole
Unequal laws unto a savage race,
That hoard, and sleep, and feed, and know not me.
I cannot rest from travel : I will drink
Life to the lees : all times I have enjoy'd Greatly, have suffer'd greatly, both with those
That loved me, and alone ; on shore, and when Thro' scudding drifts the rainy Hyades
Vext the dim sea : I am become a name ;
For always roaming with a hungry heart
Much have I seen and known ; cities of men

And manners, climates, councils, governments,
Myself not least, but honour'd of them all ;
And drunk delight of battle with my peers,
Far on the ringing plains of windy Troy.
I am a part of all that I have met ;
Yet all experience is an arch wherethro'
Gleams that untravell'd world, whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move.
How dull it is to pause, to make an end,
To rust unburnish'd, not to shine in use !
As tho' to breathe were life. Life piled on life
Were all too little, and of one to me
Little remains : but every hour is saved
From that eternal silence, something more,
A bringer of new things ; and vile it were
For some three suns to store and hoard myself,
And this gray spirit yearning in desire
To follow knowledge like a sinking star,
Beyond the utmost bound of human thought.

TENNYSON.

ἄστη βροτῶν τρόπους τε τάς θ' ὁμηγύρεις
 ἀρχάς τε βουλάς τ' εἰσιὰν βουληφόρων

 ἔντιμος ἔστην, καὶ δορυσσόου κλόνου χαρᾶς μετέσχον ξὺν φίλων ὁμηγύρει πύργοις ἐριγδούποισιν Ἰλίου πάρα.
 οὐδ' ἦν θεωρὸς ἐν βίον τραγῳδίᾳ,
 ἐμοὶ δ' ἅπαν δῆθ', ὥσπερ Ἱριδος κύκλος,
 δοκεῖ πελάζειν, εἴτ' ἀποπτάσθαι πρόσω,
 πετεινὸν αἰὲν εὗτ' ἀν ἐκτείνω χέρα.
 ὡς φαῦλός ἔστ' οὖν ὃς βίον τρίβει μάτην,
 ἐῶν ἀμαυρὰν ἀργίαν τρώγειν φρένας,
 ὡς δῆτ' ἀν εἰ τὸ ζῆν τόδ' ἦν τὸ πνεῦν μόνον.
 αἰῶν γὰρ εἰς αἰῶνα συγκεχωσμένος
 σμικρὸν μέν, οὐδὲ τοῦδ' ἐμοὶ μέτρον μακρόν, σώσω δ' ὅμως τὸ λοιπὸν εἰς χρείαν τινά, ἀρπάζεται τε πᾶσ' ἀπ' αἰανοῦς ὑπνου
 ὥρα, νεογνὸν αἰὲν ὠδύνουσά τι.
 ἦ μὴν πονηρὸς ἦν ἄν, εἰ δύ' ἥλιον κύκλους ἐμὸν σώζοιμι φειδωλὸς βίον ψυχὴν πεδηθείς, ἢτις ὥσπερ ἀστέρας

SONG.

Gloomy winter's noo awa,
Saft the wastlin' breezes blaw :
'Mang the birk o' Stanley-shaw
The mavis sings fu' cheerie, O.

Sweet the craw-flower's early bell
Decks Gleniffer's dewy dell,
Bloomin' like thy bonnie sel',
My young, my artless dearie, O.

Come, my lassie, let us stray
O'er Glenkilloch's sunny brae,
Blithely spend the gowden day
'Midst joys that never weary, O.

Hovering o'er the Newton woods,
Laverocks fan the snaw-white clouds,
Siller saughs, wi' downie buds,
Adorn the banks sae brierie, O.

Round the sylvan fairy nooks
Feathery braikens fringe the rocks,
'Neath the brae the burnie jouks,
And ilka thing is cheerie, O.

Trees may bud, and birds may sing,
Flowers may bloom, and verdure spring,
Joy to me they canna bring,
Unless wi' thee, my dearie, O.

CICERO, CRASSUS, CATO, CÆSAR.

CIC. I know well in what terms I do receive
The commonwealth, how vexed, how perplex'd :
In which there's not that mischief, or ill fate,
That good men fear not, wicked men expect not.

I know, besides, some turbulent practices
Already on foot, and rumours of more dangers—
CRASS. Or you will make them, if there be none.

CIC. Last,
I know 'twas this, which made the envy and pride
Of the great Roman blood bate, and give way
To my election.

CATO. Marcus Tullius, true ;
Our need made thee our consul, and thy virtue.
CÆS. Cato, you will undo him with your praise.

CATO. Cæsar will hurt himself with his own envy.

CATO. The voice of Rome is the consent of Heaven !

And that hath placed thee, Cicero, at the helm,
Where thou must render now thyself a man,
And master of thy art. Each petty hand
Can steer a ship becalm'd ; but he that will Govern and carry her to her ends, must know
His tides, his currents ; how to shift his sails,
What she will bear in foul, what in fair weather ;
Where her springs are, her leaks ; and how to stop 'em ;

What sands, what shelves, what rocks do threaten her ;

The forces and the natures of all winds,
Gusts, storms, and tempests ; when her keel
ploughs hell,

And deck knocks heaven ; then to manage her,
Becomes the name and office of a pilot.

CIC. Which I'll perform with all the diligence
And fortitude I have ; not for my year,
But for my life ; except my life be less,
And that my year conclude it : if it must,
Your will, loved Gods. This heart shall yet

WHAT OF THE DARKNESS ?

What of the Darkness ? Is it very fair ?
Are there great calms and find ye silence there ?
Like soft-shut lilies all your faces glow
With some strange peace our faces never know,
With some great faith our faces never dare.
Dwells it in Darkness ? Do ye find it there ?

Is it a Bosom where tired heads may lie ?
Is it a Mouth to kiss our weeping dry ?
Is it a Hand to still the pulse's leap ?
Is it a Voice that holds the runes of sleep ?
Day shows us not such comfort anywhere.
Dwells it in Darkness ? Do ye find it there ?

Out of the Day's deceiving light we call,
Day that shows man so great and God so small,
That hides the stars and magnifies the grass ;
Oh, is the Darkness too a lying glass ?
Or, undistracted, do ye find truth there ?
What of the Darkness ? Is it very fair ?

CASSANDRA, HECTOR, TROILUS, PARIS, PRIAM.

CAS. Cry, Trojans, cry ! lend me ten thousand eyes,
And I will fill them with prophetic tears.

HECT. Peace, sister, peace !

CAS. Virgins and boys, mid-age and wrinkled eld,
Soft infancy, that nothing canst but cry,
Add to my clamours ! let us pay betimes
A moiety of that mass of moan to come.
Cry, Trojans, cry ! practise your eyes with tears !
Troy must not be, nor goodly Ilion stand ;
Our firebrand brother, Paris, burns us all.
Cry, Trojans, cry ! a Helen and a woe !
Cry, cry ! Troy burns, or else let Helen go.

HECT. Now, youthful Troilus, do not these high strains
Of divination in our sister work
Some touches of remorse ? or is your blood

ΚΑΣΣΑΝΔΡΑ, ΕΚΤΩΡ, ΤΡΩΙΛΟΣ, ΠΑΡΙΣ, ΠΡΙΑΜΟΣ.

ΚΑΣ. Γοᾶσθε, Τρῶες, μυρίοις γὰρ ὅμμασιν
ἀρκῶ παρασχεῖν μαντικὴν πλημμυρίδα.

ΕΚΤ. ἀλλ', ὦ τάλαινα, γλῶσσαν εὐφημον φέρε.

ΚΑΣ. ὦ παρθένοι παῖδες θ', ὅσοις τ' αἰών μεσοῖ, ρήσοι γέροντες καὶ βρέφη βοῶν μόνον σθένοντ', ἐμοῖς γόοισι συστενάζετε.
σιγᾶν γὰρ οὐκέτ', ἐκτίνειν δὲ νῦν ἀκμὴ

γοᾶσθε, νῦν γὰρ βλέφαρα χρὴ προγυμνάσαι.
Τροίας γὰρ ἄστυν καλλίπυργον οἴχεται,
Πάρις δ' ἄπαντας ἐκπυροῖ δαλοῦ δίκην.

‘Ελένην ὁμοῦ γοᾶσθε τὴν πολύστονον.

ΕΚΤ. ἀρ' ἔσθ' ὅπως σύ, Τρωίλουν νέον κάρα, τὰ σέμιν' ἀδελφῆς θεσπιωδούστης κλύων
οὔπω τι πάσχεις δηξικάρδιον πάθος;

So madly hot that no discourse of reason,
No fear of bad success in a bad cause,
Can qualify the same ?

TRO. Why, brother Hector,
We may not think the justness of each act
Such and no other than event doth form it,
Nor once deject the courage of our minds,
Because Cassandra's mad : her brain-sick raptures
Cannot distaste the goodness of a quarrel
Which hath our several honours all engag'd
To make it gracious. For my private part,
I am no more touch'd than all Priam's sons ;
And Jove forbid there should be done amongst us
Such things as might offend the weakest spleen
To fight for and maintain.

PAR. Else might the world convince of levity
As well my undertakings as your counsels ;
But I attest the gods, your full consent
Gave wings to my propension and cut off
All fears attending on so dire a project :
For what, alas, can these my single arms ?
What propugnation is in one man's valour,
To stand the push and enmity of those
This quarrel would excite ? Yet, I protest,
Were I alone to pass the difficulties,
And had as ample power as I have will,
Paris should ne'er retract what he hath done,
Nor faint in the pursuit.

Ca' them whaur' the heather grows,

TIBERIUS, SEJANUS.

TIB. Is yet Sejanus come?

SEJ. He's here, dread Cæsar.

TIB. Let all depart that chamber, and the next.

Sit down, my comfort. When the master prince
Of all the world, Sejanus, saith he fears,
Is it not fatal?

SEJ. Yes, to those are fear'd.

TIB. And not to him?

SEJ. Not if he wisely turn
That part of fate he holdeth, first on them.

TIB. That nature, blood, and laws of kind forbid.

SEJ. Do policy and state forbid it?

TIB. No.

SEJ. The rest of poor respects, then, let go by;
State is enough to make the act just, them guilty.

TIB. Long hate pursues such acts.

SEJ. Whom hatred frights,
Let him not dream of sovereignty.

TIB. Are rites
Of faith, love, piety, to be trod down,
Forgotten and made vain ?

SEJ. All for a crown.

The prince who shames a tyrant's name to bear,
Shall never dare do anything, but fear ;
All the command of sceptres quite doth perish,
If it begin religious thoughts to cherish :
Whole empires fall, swayed by these nice respects ;
It is the licence of dark deeds protects
Ev'n states most hated, when no laws resist
The sword, but that it acteth what it list.

TIB. Yet so, we may do all things cruelly,
Not safely.

SEJ. Yes, and do them thoroughly.

TIB. Knows yet Sejanus whom we point at ?

SEJ. Ay,
Or else my thought, my sense, or both do err :
'Tis Agrippina.

TIB. She, and her proud race.

SEJ. Proud ! dangerous, Cæsar : for in them apace
The father's spirit shoots up. Germanicus Lives in their looks, their gait, their form, t' upbraid us
With his close death, if not revenge the same.

TIB. The act's not known.

SEJ. Not proved : but whispering
Fame

Knowledge and proof doth to the jealous give,
Who, than to fail, would their own thought believe.

It is not safe, the children draw long breath,
That are provoked by a parent's death.

TIB. It is as dangerous to make them hence,
If nothing but their birth be their offence.

SEJ. Stay, till they strike at Cæsar ; then their crime
Will be enough ; but late and out of time
For him to punish.

TIB. Do they purpose it ?

SEJ. You know, sir, thunder speaks not till it hit.
Be not secure ; none swiftlier are oppressed,
Than they whoin confidence betrays to rest.
Let not your daring make your danger such :
All power is to be fear'd where 'tis too much.
The youths are of themselves hot, violent,
Full of great thought ; and that male-spirited dame,
Their mother, slacks no means to put them on,
By large allowance, popular presentings,
Increase of train and state, suing for titles ;
Hath them commended with like prayers, like vows,
To the same gods, with Cæsar.

GAVESTON, KENT, KING EDWARD.

- GAV. My lord, these titles far exceed my worth.
KENT. Brother, the least of these may well suffice
For one of greater birth than Gaveston.
K. EDW. Cease, brother : for I cannot brook these words.
Thy worth, sweet friend, is far above my gifts,
Therefore, to equal it, receive my heart :
If for these dignities thou be envied,
I'll give thee more : for, but to honour thee,
Is Edward pleased with kingly regiment.
Fear'st thou thy person ? thou shalt have a guard :
Wantest thou gold ? go to my treasury :
Wouldst thou be loved and feared ? receive my seal ;
Save or condemn, and in our name command
What-so thy mind affects or fancy likes.
- GAV. It shall suffice me to enjoy your love,
Which whiles I have, I think myself as great
As Caesar riding in the Roman street,
With captive kings at his triumphant car.

DIOCLESIAN.

Suppose this done, or were it possible
I could rise higher still, I am a man ;
And all these glories, empires heap'd upon me,
Confirmed by constant friends and faithful guards,
Cannot defend me from a shaking fever,
Or bribe the uncorrupted dart of Death
To spare me till to-morrow. Thus adorn'd
In these triumphant robes, my body yields not
A greater shadow than it did when I
Lived both poor and obscure ; a sword's sharp point
Enters my flesh as far ; dreams break my sleep,
As when I was a private man ; my passions
Are stronger tyrants on me ; nor is greatness
A saving antidote to keep me from
A traitor's poison.

ATTENDANT SPIRIT.

Within the navel of this hideous wood,
Immured in cypress shades, a sorcerer dwells,
Of Bacchus and of Circe born, great Comus,
Deep skilled in all his mother's witcheries ;
And here to every thirsty wanderer
By sly enticement gives his baneful cup,
With many murmurs mixed, whose pleasing poison
The visage quite transforms of him that drinks,
And the inglorious likeness of a beast
Fixes instead, unmoulding reason's mintage
Character'd in the face : this have I learn'd
Tending my flocks hard by i' the hilly crofts,
That brow this bottom glade ; whence night by night
He and his monstrous rout are heard to howl
Like stabled wolves, or tigers at their prey,
Doing abhorred rites to Hecate
In their obscurend haunts of inmost bowers.

THE SHORTNESS OF HUMAN LIFE.

Suns that set, and moons that wane,
Rise and are restored again ;
Stars that orient day subdues
Night on her return renewes.
Herbs and flowers, the beauteous birth
Of the genial womb of earth,
Suffer but a transient death
From the winter's cruel breath.
Zephyr speaks ; serener skies
Warm the glebe, and they arise.
We, alas ! earth's haughty kings,
We, that promise mighty things,
Losing soon life's happy prime,
Droop and fade in little time.
Spring returns, but not our bloom ;
Still 'tis winter in the tomb.

ATHENIAN HERALD.

But not long

Had the fresh wave of windy fight begun
Heaving, and all the surge of swords to sway,
When timeless night laid hold of heaven, and took
With its great gorge the noon as in a gulf,
Strangled; and thicker than the shrill-winged shafts
Flew the fleet lightnings . . . that our host,
Smit with sick presage of some wrathful God
Quailed, but the foe as from one iron throat
With one great sheer sole thousand-throated cry Shook earth, heart-staggered from their shout, and clove
The eyeless hollow of heaven; and breached therewith
As with an onset of strength-shattering sound
The rent vault of the roaring noon of night
From her throned seat of usurpation rang
Reverberate answer; such response there pealed
As though the tide's charge of a storming sea
Had burst the sky's wall, and made broad a breach
In the ambient girth and bastion flanked with stars
Guarding the fortress of the Gods, and all Crashed now together on ruin.

IN MEMORIAM.

When on my bed the moonlight falls,

I know that in thy place of rest

By that broad water of the west,

There comes a glory on the walls :

Thy marble bright in dark appears,

As slowly steals a silver flame

Along the letters of thy name,

And o'er the number of thy years.

The mystic glory swims away ;

From off my bed the moonlight dies ;

And closing eaves of wearied eyes

I sleep till dusk is dipt in grey :

And then I know the mist is drawn

A lucid veil from coast to coast,

And in the dark church like a ghost

Thy tablet glimmers to the dawn.

A LAMENT.*

Tears for the noble dead,
    Gems of the rarest,
Flowers for his lustrous head,
    Cull him the fairest.
Mourn o'er his lost lore,
    Lore of the sages,
Gathered in richest store,
    Rifling the ages.
Mourn him, both Rhine and Rhone,
    Tiber, Ilissus,
Dee, and her sister Don,
    Ythan and Isis.
Pale lies the manly brow
    Kings might have chosen,
All his bright promise now
    Withered and frozen.

For that our kingdom's earth should not be soil'd
With that dear blood which it hath fostered ;
And for our eyes do hate the dire aspect
Of civil wounds plough'd up with neighbours' swords ;
And for we think the eagle-wingèd pride
Of sky-aspiring and ambitious thoughts,
With rival-hating envy, set you on
To wake our peace, which in our country's cradle
Draws the sweet infant breath of gentle sleep ;
Which so rous'd up with boisterous untun'd drums,
With harsh resounding trumpets' dreadful bray,
And grating shock of wrathful iron arms,

ὅπλων κροτησμοῖς, ἀγρίων χαλκευμάτων,

Might from our quiet confines fright fair peace,
And make us wade even in our kindred's blood ;—
Therefore, we banish you our territories ;
You, cousin Hereford, upon pain of death,
Till twice five summers have enrich'd our fields,
Shall not regreet our fair dominions,
But tread the stranger paths of banishment.

BOLING. Your will be done : this must my comfort be,
The sun that warms you here shall shine on me.
And those his golden beams to you here lent,
Shall point on me and gild my banishment.

K. RICH. Norfolk, for thee remains a heavier doom,
Which I with some unwillingness pronounce :
The fly-slow hours shall not determinate
The dateless limit of thy dear exile ;
The hopeless word of, ‘never to return,’
Breathe I against thee, upon pain of life.

NOR. A heavy sentence, my most sovereign liege,
And all unlook'd for from your highness' mouth :
A dearer merit, not so deep a maim
As to be cast forth in the common air,
Have I deserved at your highness' hands.
The language I have learn'd these forty years
My native English now I must forego :
And now my tongue's use is to me no more
Than an unstringed viol or a harp :
Or like a cunning instrument cas'd up,
Or, being open, put into his hands
That knows no touch to tune the harmony.

μέλλοι τότ' ἐκφοβεῖν ἀν εἰρήνην χθονός,
ἡμᾶς δ' ὁμαίμων αἵμάτων φύρειν ῥοαῖς.
πρὸς ταῦτα φεύξεσθ' ἡμίν· ὥστ', ὡς ξυγγενές, εὔκαρπον αἰαν· ἦν δὲ μὴ φεύγης, θανεῖ·

ἄλλας δ' ἀήθεις χρή σ' ἐπιστείβειν ὁδούς.

ΒΩΛ. ἔστω τάδ· ἐν δὲ κεῦνό γ' εὐφρανεῖ μ', ὅτι θάλψει σὲ κάμε ταῦτὸ πῦρ εὐήλιον, καὶ χρυσοφεγγεῖς ἄσ σὺ τῇδ' ὄρᾶς βολὰς
φάει περιπτύξουσι τὸν φεύγοντ' ἐμέ.

ΒΑΣ. Νόρφολκε, σοὶ δὲ βαρυτέρα κεῖται δίκη,
ἥν οὐχ ἔκών γε προύννεπω. σοὶ γὰρ χρόνος βραδύποντος βαδίζων αἰὲν αἰανῆ φυγὴν οὐκ ἔξαλεύψει, ρέει δ' ἀνευ προθεσμίας.
ἀμήχανον δὲ τόνδε κηρύσσω λόγον,
μή μοι κατελθεῖν αὖθις· εἰ δὲ μή, θανεῖ.

ΝΟΡ. Βαρεῖά γ', ὡς φέριστ' ἄναξ, ἡ σὴ κρίσις, ὅλως τ' ἀελπτος ἔκ γε σῆς γλώσσης κλύνειν.
φεῦ· οἶτ' ἔργα δράσας οἴα λαγχάνω, χάριν ἄχαριν λαβὼν τήνδ' ἀνθ' ὑπηρετημάτων, προπηλακισθὲν πατρίδος ἐκβλητον δέμας.
ἐγχωρίαν δὲ γλῶσσαν, ἢ συζῷ πάλαι,
ἔατέον νῦν, οὐδὲ τῆς φωνῆς ἔτι
δύνησις ἥξει πλὴν ὕστην γ' ἔχει λύρα πηκτίς τ' ἄχορδος, εἴτε ποικίλου σοφὸν ξοάνου τι μηχάνημα κατακεκλημένον, ἢ καὶ πρόχειρον, ἀλλ' ἐπιτραπὲν χερὶ<sup>1</sup>
ἥτις κρέκειν ξύμφωνον οὐκ ἐπίσταται.

Within my mouth you have engaol'd my tongue,
Doubly portcullis'd with my teeth and lips;
And dull, unfeeling, barren ignorance
Is made my gaoler to attend on me.
I am too old to fawn upon a nurse,
Too far in years to be a pupil now;
What is thy sentence then but speechless death,
Which robs my tongue from breathing native breath.

K. RICH. It boots thee not to be compassionate;

After our sentence plaining comes too late.

NOR. Then thus I turn me from my country's light,
To dwell in solemn shades of endless night.

ERECHTHEUS.

To fight then be it: for if to die or live,
No man but only a God knows this much yet,
Seeing us fare forth, who bear but in our hands
The weapons, not the fortunes of our fight:
For these now rest as lots that yet undrawn
Lie in the lap of the unknown hour; but this
I know, not thou, whose hollow mouth of storm
Is but a warlike wind, a sharp salt breath
That bites and wounds not; death nor life of mine
Shall give to death or lordship of strange kings
The soul of this live city, nor their heel
Bruise her dear head discrowned.

SWINBURNE, Erechtheus.

LEONATO.

I know not. If they speak but truth of her,
These hands shall tear her; if they wrong her honour,
The proudest of them shall well hear of it.
Time hath not yet so dried this blood of mine,
Nor age so eat up my invention,
Nor fortune made such havoc of my means,
Nor my bad life reft me so much of friends,
But they shall find, awak'd in such a kind,
Both strength of limb, and policy of mind,
Ability in means and choice of friends,
To quit me of them throughly.

CANTERBURY.

Therefore doth Heaven divide
The state of man in divers functions,
Setting endeavour in continual motion ;
To which is fixed as an aim or butt
Obedience : for so work the honey-bees,
Creatures that by a rule in nature teach
The act of order to a peopled kingdom.
They have a king and officers of sorts,
Where some, like magistrates, correct at home,
Others, like merchants, venture trade abroad ;
Others, like soldiers, armed in their stings,
Make boot upon the summer's velvet buds ;
Which pillage they with merry march bring home
To the tent-royal of their emperor :
Who, busied in his majesty, surveys
The singing masons building roofs of gold,
The civil citizens kneading up the honey :
The poor mechanic porters crowding in
Their heavy burthens at his narrow gate,
The sad-ey'd justice, with his surly hum,
Delivering o'er to executors pale
The lazy yawning drone.

SONG.

When I am dead, my dearest,
    Sing no sad songs for me ;
Plant thou no roses at my head,
    Nor shady cypress tree.
Be the green grass above me .
    With showers and dewdrops wet ;
And if thou wilt, remember,
    And if thou wilt, forget.

I shall not see the shadows,
    I shall not feel the rain ;
I shall not hear the nightingale
    Sing on, as if in pain ;
And dreaming through the twilight
    That doth not rise nor set,
Haply I may remember,
    And haply may forget.

TO THE SUN.

my fathers !

Whence are thy beams, O sun ! thy everlasting light ?

Thou comest forth in thy awful beauty ; the stars hide themselves in the sky ; the moon, cold and pale, sinks in the western wave.

But thou thyself movest alone : who can be a companion of thy course !

The oaks of the mountains fall : the mountains themselves decay with years ; the ocean shrinks and grows again : the moon herself is lost in heaven ; but thou art for ever the same ; rejoicing in the brightness of thy course.

When the world is dark with tempests ; when thunder rolls, and lightning flies ; thou lookest in thy beauty from the clouds, and laughest at the storm.

But to Ossian thou lookest in vain ; for he beholds thy beams no more ; whether thy yellow hair flows on the eastern clouds, or thou tremblest at the gates of the west.

But thou art perhaps like me ; for a season thy years will have an end.

Thou shalt sleep in thy clouds, careless of the voice of the morning.

Exult thee, O sun ! in the strength of thy youth !

Age is dark and unlovely ; it is like the glimmering

DEIANEIRA.

Ah me, the weary days
We women live, spending our anxious souls
Consumed with jealous fancies, hungering still
For the belovèd voice and ears and eyes,
And hungering all in vain ! For life is more
To youthful manhood than to sit at home
Before the hearth to watch the children's ways
And lead the life of petty household care
Which doth content us women. Day by day
I pined in Trachis for my love, while he,
Now in some warlike exploit busied, now
Fighting some monster, now at some fair court,
Resting awhile till some new enterprise
Called him, returned not. News of treacheries
Punished, friends succoured, dreadful monsters slain,
Came from him : always triumph, always fame,
And honour, and success and reverence.

And sometimes words of love for me who pined
For more than words, and would have gone to him
But that the toils of such high errantry
Asked more than woman's strength. So the slow years

Vexed me alone in Trachis, set forlorn
In solitude, nor hearing at the gate
The frank and cheering voice, nor on the stair
The heavy tread, nor feeling the strong arm
Around me in the darkling night, when all
My being ran slow. Last, subtle whispers came
Of womanish wiles which kept my lord from me.

EXILE.

Blows the wind to-day, and the sun and the rain are flying,
Blows the wind on the moors to-day and now,

Where about the graves of the martyrs the whaups are crying,

    My heart remembers how !

Grey recumbent tombs of the dead in desert places,

    Standing stones on the vacant wine-red moor,
Hills of sheep, and the homes of the silent, vanished races,

    And winds, austere and pure :

Be it granted me to behold you again in dying,

    Hills of home ! and to hear again the call,

Hear about the graves of the martyrs the peewees crying,

    And hear no more at all.

Let it be so ;—thy truth then be thy dower ;
For, by the sacred radiance of the sun,

By all the operations of the orbs,
From whom we do exist and cease to be,
Here I disclaim all my paternal care,
Propinquity, and property of blood,
And as a stranger to my heart and me
Hold thee, from this for ever. The barbarous Scythian,
Or he that makes his generation messes
To gorge his appetite, shall to my bosom
Be as well neighbour'd, pitied, and relieved,
As thou, my sometime daughter.

In the disguise of a Moresco chieftain.

ZUL. Will they not know you ?

ALV. With your aid, friend, I shall unfearingly
Trust the disguise ; and as to my complexion,
My long imprisonment, the scanty food,
This scar,—and toil beneath a burning sun
Have done already half the business for us.
Add too my youth ;—since last we saw each other,
Manhood has swoln my chest, and taught my voice
A hoarser note.—Besides, they think me dead ;
And what the mind believes impossible,
The bodily sense is slow to recognise.

ZUL. 'Tis yours, sir, to command, mine to obey.

EVE.

Sweet is the breath of Morn, her rising sweet,
With charm of earliest birds ; pleasant the Sun,
When first on this delightful land he spreads
His orient beams on herb, tree, fruit and flower
Glistering with dew ; fragrant the fertile Earth
After soft showers ; and sweet the coming-on
Of grateful Evening mild : then silent Night
With this her solemn bird, and this fair Moon,
And these the gems of Heaven, her starry train.
But neither breath of Morn when she ascends
Nor glistering starlight without thee is sweet.

ULYSSES.

This is my son, mine own Telemachus,
To whom I leave the sceptre and the isle—
Well-loved of me, discerning to fulfil
This labour, by slow prudence to make mild
A rugged people, and thro' soft degrees
Subdue them to the useful and the good.
Most blameless is he, centred in the sphere
Of common duties, decent not to fail
In offices of tenderness, and pay
Meet adoration to my household gods
When I am gone. He works his work, I mine.

There lies the port; the vessel puffs her sail:
There gloom the dark broad seas. My mariners,

Free hearts, free foreheads—you and I are old :

Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows : for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths
Of all the western stars, until I die.

It may be that the gulfs will wash us down :
It may be we shall touch the Happy Isles,

EVENSONG.

The embers of the day are red
Beyond the murky hill:
The kitchen smokes: the bed
In the darkling house is spread:
The great sky darkens overhead,
And the great woods are shrill.
So far have I been led,
Lord, by Thy will:
So far have I followed, Lord, and wondered still.

The breeze from the embalmèd land
Blows sudden toward the shore,
And claps my cottage door.
I hear the signal, Lord,—I understand,
The night at Thy command
Comes. I will eat and sleep, and will not question more.

BISHOP, QUEEN.

BISHOP. Since we have spoke and counsel is not heard,
I for my part—let others as they list—
Will leave the court, and leave him to his will,
Lest with a routhful eye I should behold
His overthrow, which sore I fear is nigh.

QUEEN DOR. Ah father, are you so estranged from love,
From due allegiance to your prince and land,
To leave your king when most he needs your help ?
The thrifty husbandmen are never wont,
That see their lands unfruitful, to forsake them ;
But when the mould is barren and unapt,
They toil, they plough, and make the fallow fat :
The pilot in the dangerous seas is known ;
In calmer waves the silly sailor strives.
Are you not members, lords, of common weal,
And can your head, your dear anointed king,
Default, ye lords, except yourselves do fail ?
O stay your steps, return and counsel him.

LORENZO.

Sit, Jessica. Look how the floor of Heaven
Is thick inlaid with patines of bright gold ;
There's not the smallest orb which thou behold'st
But in his motion like an angel sings,
Still quiring to the young-eyed cherubims :
Such harmony is in immortal souls ;
But whilst this muddy vesture of decay
Doth grossly close it in, we cannot hear it.
Come, ho ! and wake Diana with a hymn ;
With sweetest touches pierce your mistress' ear
And draw her home with music.

    His choir, the Nine.

—The leader is fairest,

—Whose praise do they mention ?

    Of what is it told ?—

What will be forever ;

    What was from of old.

First hymn they the Father

    Of all things ; and then

The rest of immortals,

    The action of men.

The day in his hotness,

    The strife with the palm ;

The night in her silence,

    The stars in their calm.

PRAYER.

The old order changeth, yielding place to new,
And God fulfils himself in many ways,
Lest one good custom should corrupt the world.
Comfort thyself: what comfort is in me ?
I have lived my life, and that which I have done
May He within himself make pure ! but thou,
If thou shouldst never see my face again,
Pray for my soul. More things are wrought by prayer
Than this world dreams of. Wherefore, let thy voice
Rise like a fountain for me night and day.
For what are men better than sheep or goats
That nourish a blind life within the brain,
If, knowing God, they lift not hands of prayer
Both for themselves and those who call them friend ?
For so the whole round earth is every way
Bound by gold chains about the feet of God.

DOGE, SIGNOR OF THE NIGHT.

DOGE. (solas).                                   He is gone,
And on each footstep moves a life. 'Tis done.
Now the destroying angel hovers o'er
Venice, and pauses ere he pours the vial,
Even as the eagle overlooks his prey,
And for a moment, poised in middle air,
Suspends the motion of his mighty wings,
Then swoops with his unerring beak. Thou day !
That slowly walk'st the waters ! march—march on—

I would not smite i' the dark, but rather see
That no stroke errs. And you, ye blue sea waves !

I have seen you dyed ere now, and deeply too,
With Genoese, Saracen, and Hunnish gore,
While that of Venice flow'd too, but victorious,

BYRON, MARINO FALIERO.

Now thou must wear an unmix'd crimson ; no
Barbaric blood can reconcile us now
Unto that horrible incarnadine,
But friend or foe will roll in civic slaughter.
And have I lived to fourscore years for this ?
I, who was named Preserver of the City ?
I, at whose name the million's caps were flung
Into the air, and cries from tens of thousands
Rose up, imploring Heaven to send me blessings,
And fame, and length of days—to see this day ?
But this day, black within the calendar,
Shall be succeeded by a bright millennium.
Doge Dandolo survived to ninety summers
To vanquish empires, and refuse their crown ;
I will resign a crown, and make the state
Renew its freedom—but oh ! by what means ?
The noble end must justify them. What
Are a few drops of human blood ? 'tis false,
The blood of tyrants is not human ; they,
Like to incarnate Molochs, feed on ours,
Until 'tis time to give them to the tombs
Which they have made so populous.—Oh world !
Oh men ! what are ye, and our best designs,
That we must work by crime to punish crime ?
And slay as if Death had but this one gate,
When a few years would make the sword superfluous ?

And I, upon the verge of th' unknown realm,
Yet send so many heralds on before me?—
I must not ponder this. [A pause.]

Hark! was there not
A murmur as of distant voices, and
The tramp of feet in martial unison?
What phantoms even of sound our wishes raise!
It cannot be—the signal hath not rung—
Why pauses it? My nephew's messenger
Should be upon his way to me, and he Himself perhaps even now draws grating back
Upon its ponderous hinge the steep tower portal,
Where swings the sullen huge oracular bell,
Which never knells but for a princely death,
Or for a state in peril, pealing forth
Tremendous bodements; let it do its office,
And be this peal its awfullest and last Sound till the strong tower rock!—What! silent still?

I would go forth, but that my post is here,
To be the centre of re-union to
The oft discordant elements which form
Leagues of this nature, and to keep compact
The wavering of the weak, in case of conflict;
For if they should do battle, 'twill be here,
Within the palace, that the strife will thicken:

πλείους γὰρ Ἀιδου τῆσδ' ἔχοντος εἰσόδους,
 χεῦρ' ἀν ξιφουλκὸν παῦρα πληθύοντ' ἔτη

Then here must be my station, as becomes
 The master-mover.—Hark ! he comes—he comes,
 My nephew, brave Bertuccio's messenger.—
 What tidings ? Is he marching ? hath he sped ?
They here!—all's lost—yet will I make an effort.

Enter a SIGNOR OF THE NIGHT, with Guards, etc., etc.

SIG. Doge, I arrest thee of high treason !

DOGE. Me !

Thy prince, of treason ?—Who are they that dare
 Cloak their own treason under such an order ?

SIG. (showing his order). Behold my order from the assembled Ten.

DOGE. And where are they, and why assembled ? no
 Such council can be lawful, till the prince
 Preside there, and that duty's mine : on thine
 I charge thee, give me way, or marshal me
 To the council chamber.

SIG. Duke ! it may not be :
 Nor are they in the wonted Hall of Council,
 But sitting in the convent of Saint Saviour's.

DOGE. You dare to disobey me, then ?

SIG. I serve
 The state, and needs must serve it faithfully ;
 My warrant is the will of those who rule it.

DOGE. And till that warrant has my signature
 It is illegal, and, as now applied, Rebellious. Hast thou weigh'd well thy life's worth,
 That thus you dare assume a lawless function ?

τήνδ' οὖν φυλάξω τάξιν, ὡς ράψας ἔγω
τὰ πάντα. καὶ μὴν συγγενοῦς παρ' ἀλκίμου
ὅδ' ἄγγελος δεῦρ' ἀρτίπους πορεύεται.
τί νέον; ἐλαύνει; κοῦφον ἐξῆρεν πόδα;
οἴμοι·
πάρεισιν ἔχθροι. πάντ' ὅλωλεν, ἀλλ' ὅμως.

ΛΟΧΑΓΟΣ.

ὦναξ, πόλιν προδόντα σ' εἰς δίκην ἄγω.

ΑΝ. ποίαν τυράννου προδοσίαν κατηγορῶν;
τίνες γὰρ οἱ τολμῶντες οἰκεῖον δόλον
λάθρᾳ καλύπτειν τῷδε τῷ προστάγματι;

ΛΟΧ. λάβ' οὖν ἐφετμὰς τῶν δέκ' ἐκ συνεδρίου.

ΑΝ. ποῦ τί ξυνῆλθον; ἢ θύραζε τῶν νόμων
οὗτοι συνεδρεύουσι βασιλέως ἄνευ ἐπιστατοῦντος, τοῦτο δ' ἔστ' ἐμὸν γέρας.
σοὶ δ', ὡς προσῆκον, ἢ μ' ἀφίέναι λέγω
ἥτοι κομίζειν πρὸς τὸ βουλευτήριον.

ΛΟΧ. οὐκ ἔστιν, ὦναξ. οὐδὲ μὴν εἰωθόσιν
ἴζουσ' ἐν οἴκοις, ἐν δὲ σωτῆρος Διός.

ΑΝ. σὺ ταῦτ' ἀπειθεῖς ὥδ' ἀπ' αὐθάδους φρενός;

ΛΟΧ. πόλεως γὰρ ὧν λάτρευμα λατρεύσω καλῶς.
οἱ δ' ἐν τέλει μοι τοῦτ' ἐπέσκηψαν τέλος.

ΑΝ. καὶ ταῦτα μὴ σφραγῖδι πιστωθέντ' ἐμῇ
οὕτ' ἔννομ' ἔστι νῦν τε κάπειλεῖ στάσιν.
οῦκον πρόνοιαν ἔσχες ὡς λύει βίος,
ὅς γ' οὐ θεμιστῶς ταῦτα τολμήσας κυρεῖς;

SIG. 'Tis not my office to reply, but act—
I am placed here as guard upon thy person,
And not as judge to hear or to decide.

DOGE. (aside). I must gain time. So that the storm-bell sound,
All may be well yet.—Kinsman, speed—speed—speed!—
Our fate is trembling in the balance, and Woe to the vanquish'd! be they prince and people,
Or slaves and senate—

[The great bell of St. Mark's tolls.

Lo! it sounds—it tolls!

(A loud). Hark, Signor of the Night! and you, ye hirelings,
Who wield your mercenary staves in fear,
It is your knell—

Swell on, thou lusty peal!

Now, knaves, what ransom for your lives?

SIG. Confusion!
Stand to your arms, and guard the door—all's lost
Unless that fearful bell be silenced soon.
The officer hath miss'd his path or purpose,
Or met some unforeseen and hideous obstacle.
Anselmo, with thy company proceed
Straight to the tower; the rest remain with me.

[Exit part of the Guard.

DOGE. Wretch! if thou wouldst have thy vile life, implore it;
It is not now a lease of sixty seconds.
Ay, send thy miserable ruffians forth;
They never shall return.

ΛΟΧ. ἔργων μέλει νῦν, οὐκ ἀμείβεσθαι λόγοις·

σὲ γὰρ φυλάξων τήνδε προύσταλην ὁδόν, κούχῳστ' ἀκούειν ἢ διακρίνειν βραβεύς.

ΑΝ. τριβῆς με δεῖ. σάλπιγξ γὰρ ἦν φωνῇ μόνον
ἡ χαλκοκάδων πάντ' ἀν εὐβόλως ἔχοι.

δεῦρ' οὖν τάχυν', ὅμαιμε, σὺν σπουδῇ ποδός· βεβήκαμεν γὰρ νῦν ἐπὶ ξυροῦ τύχης,
καὶ τοὺς δαμέντας πόλλ' ἐπαμένει παθεῖν,
δούλους τε βουλήν τ' εἴτ' ἄνακτα καὶ λεών.
ἔα, κτύπον δέδορκα κωδωνόκροτον.

ὡς νυκτίφαντε δέσποτ', ὡς ξένων ὥχλε μισθωτὰ νωμῶν ἐν φόβῳ βακτήρια, κλῦθ' ὡς ἐπηχεῖ κέλαδος οὐ παίωνιος.

χαλκόστομον μήκυνον, ὡς σάλπιγξ, βοήν.
τί νῦν, κάκιστοι, δώσεθ' ὥστε μὴ θαυμέν;

ΛΟΧ. φεῦ, φεῦ·

θύρετρ' ἐν ὅπλοις ἔχετε· πάντ' ὀλώλαμεν
ἡν μὴ τὸ δεινὸν φθέγμα σιγήσῃ ταχύ· ὅδον γὰρ ἀνὴρ δῆλος ἢ γνώμης σφαλεῖς,
ἢ πως ἀφράστῳ συντυχὼν κωλύματι.

τῷ σῷ μὲν οὖν πρὸς πύργον, Ἀστυάναξ, λόχῳ
εὐθεῖαν ἥγον, τόνδε δ' ὡς ἔχει λίπε.

ΑΝ. ὡς φαῦλον ἥθος, ἵκεσίοις εὔχου λιταῖς
εἰς ζῆν ἔθ' ἥδυ· καὶ γὰρ ἐν σμικρῷ ρόπη κεῖται βίος σὸς κούκέτ' εἰς πολὺν χρόνον.
πρὸς ταῦτα ληστὰς τούσδε σοὺς τρισαθλίους
ἐκπεμψον, οὐποτ' αὗθις ἐμβλέψων πάλιν.

SIG.

So let it be!

They die then in their duty, as will I.

DOGE. Fool! the high eagle flies at nobler game
 Than thou and thy base myrmidons,—live on,
 So thou provok'st not peril by resistance,
 And learn (if souls so much obscured can bear
 To gaze upon the sunbeams) to be free.

SIG. And learn thou to be captive. It hath ceased,
 [The bell ceases to toll.]

The traitorous signal, which was to have set
 The bloodhound mob on their patrician prey—
 The knell hath rung, but it is not the senate's!

DOGE. (after a pause). All's silent, and all's lost!

SIG. Now, Doge, denounce me
 As rebel slave of a revolted council!
 Have I not done my duty?

DOGE. Peace, thou thing!
 Thou hast done a worthy deed, and earn'd the price
 Of blood, and they who use thee will reward thee.
 But thou wert sent to watch, and not to prate,
 As thou said'st even now—then do thine office,
 But let it be in silence, as behoves thee,
 Since, though thy prisoner, I am thy prince.

SIG. I did not mean to fail in the respect
 Due to your rank: in this I shall obey you.

DOGE. (aside). There now is nothing left me save to die;
 And yet how near success! I would have fallen,
 And proudly, in the hour of triumph, but
 To miss it thus!—

BYRON, Marino Faliero, IV., 2.

ULYSSES.

There lies the port ; the vessel puffs her sail :
There gloom the dark broad seas. My mariners,
Souls that have toil'd, and wrought, and thought with me—
That ever with a frolic welcome took
The thunder and the sunshine, and opposed
Free hearts, free foreheads—you and I are old :
Old age hath yet his honour and his toil ;
Death closes all : but something ere the end,
Some work of noble note, may yet be done,
Not unbecoming men that strove with Gods.
The lights begin to twinkle from the rocks :
The long day wanes : the slow moon climbs : the deep Moans round with many voices. Come, my friends,
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world.
Push off, and sitting well in order smite
The sounding furrows : for my purpose holds
To sail beyond the sunset, and the baths

DOCTOR, ARMGART.

DOCTOR. News! stirring news to-day! wonders come thick.

ARMGART. Yes, thick, thick, thick! and you have murdered it!

Murdered my voice—poisoned the soul in me,
And kept me living.

You never told me that your cruel cures
Were clogging films—a mouldy, dead'ning blight—

A lava-mud to crust and bury me,
Yet hold me living in a deep, deep tomb,
Crying unheard for ever! O your cures
Are devils' triumphs: you can rob, maim, slay,
And keep a hell on the other side your cure
Where you can see your victim quivering
Between the teeth of torture—see a soul

MALEFORT.

Have I so far lost
A father's power, that I must give account
Of my actions to my son? or must I plead
As a fearful prisoner at the bar, while he
That owes his being to me sits a judge
To censure that, which only by myself
Ought to be question'd? Mountains sooner fall
Beneath their valleys and the lofty pine
Pay homage to the bramble, or what else is Preposterous in nature, ere my tongue
In one short syllable yield satisfaction
To any doubt of thine; nay, though it were
A certainty disdaining argument!
Since, though my deeds wore hell's black livery,
To thee they should appear triumphal robes,
Set off with glorious honour, thou being bound
To see with my eyes, and to hold that reason,
That takes or birth or fashion from my will.

THE LOST LOVE.

She dwelt among the untrodden ways
Beside the springs of Dove,
A Maid whom there were none to praise
And very few to love :

A Violet by a mossy stone
Half hidden from the eye !
Fair as a star, when only one
Is shining in the sky.

She lived unknown, and few could know
When Lucy ceased to be ;
But she is in her grave, and oh,
The difference to me !

THE LEA RIG.

When o'er the hill the eastern star
Tells bughtin' time is near, my jo ;
An' owsen frae the furrow'd field
Return sae dowf and weary, O ;
Down by the burn, where scented birks
Wi' dew are hanging clear, my jo,
I'll meet thee on the lea rig,
My ain kind dearie, O.

In mirkest glen, at midnight hour,
I'll rove, an' ne'er be eerie, O,
If thro' that glen I gaed to thee,
My ain kind dearie, O.
Although the night was ne'er sae wild,
An' I were ne'er sae wearie, O,
I'll meet thee on the lea rig,
My ain kind dearie, O.

BEATRICE.

I do entreat you, go not, noble guests ;
What, although tyranny and impious hate
Stand sheltered by a father's hoary hair :
What, if 'tis he who clothed us in these limbs
Who tortures them, and triumphs ? What, if we,
The desolate and the dead, were his own flesh,
His children and his wife, whom he is bound
To love and shelter ? Shall we therefore find
No refuge in this merciless wide world ?
Oh, think what deep wrongs must have blotted out
First love, then reverence in a child's prone mind,
Till it thus vanquish shame and fear ! Oh think !
I have borne much, and kissed the sacred hand
Which crushed us to the earth, and thought its stroke
Was perhaps some paternal chastisement !

Have excused much, doubted ; and when no doubt
Remained, have sought by patience, love, and tears
To soften him, and when this could not be
I have knelt down through the long sleepless nights
And lifted up to God, the Father of all,
Passionate prayers : and when these were not heard,
I have still borne,—until I meet you here,
Princes and kinsmen, at this hideous feast,
Given at my brothers' deaths.

MANOA.

Come, come ; no time for lamentation now,
Nor much more cause. Samson hath quit himself
Like Samson, and heroically hath finished
A life heroic, on his enemies
Fully revenged—hath left them years of mourning,
And lamentation to the sons of Caphtor
Through all Philistine bounds : to Israel
Honour hath left and freedom, let but them
Find courage to lay hold on this occasion ;
To himself and father's house eternal fame ;
And, which is best and happiest yet, all this
With God not parted from him, as was feared,
But favouring and assisting to the end.

PHÆDRA.

O women, O sweet people of this land,
O goodly city and pleasant ways thereof,
And woods with pasturing grass and great well-heads,
And hills with light and night between your leaves,
And winds with sound and silence in your lips,
And earth and water and all immortal things,
I take you to my witness what I am.
There is a god about me like as fire,
Sprung whence, who knoweth, or hath heart to say ?
A god more strong than whom slain beasts can soothe
Or honey, or any spilth of blood-like wine,
Nor shall one please him with a whitened brow
Nor wheat nor wool nor aught of plaited leaf.
For like my mother am I stung and slain,
And round my cheeks have such red malady,
And on my lips such fire and foam as hers.

CROSSING THE BAR.

Sunset and evening star,
    And one clear call for me !
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
    When I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
    Too full for sound or foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
    Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
    And after that the dark !
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
    When I embark ;
For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
    The tide may bear me far,
I hope to meet my pilot face to face,
    When I have crost the bar.

MESSENGER.

Occasions drew me early to this city ;
And, as the gates I entered with sunrise,
The morning trumpets festival proclaim'd
Through each high street. Little I had dispatched,
When all abroad was rumour'd that this day
Samson should be brought forth, to show the people
Proof of his mighty strength in feats and games.
I sorrowed at his captive state, but minded
Not to be absent at that spectacle.
The building was a spacious theatre
Half round, on two main pillars vaulted high,
With seats where all the lords, and each degree
Of sort, might sit in order to behold.
The other side was open, where the throng
On banks and scaffolds under sky might stand :
I among these aloof obscurely stood.
The feast and noon grew high, and sacrifice
Had filled their hearts with mirth, high cheer, and wine,
When to their sports they turn'd.

But Dover Castle : London hath receiv'd,

And wild amazement hurries up and down
The little number of your doubtful friends.

KING. Would not my lords return to me again,
After they heard young Arthur was alive ?

BAST. They found him dead and cast into the streets,
An empty casket, where the jewel of life
By some damn'd hand was robbed and ta'en away.

CASSIUS.

I cannot tell what you and other men
Think of this life ; but for my single self,
I had as lief not be as live to be
In awe of such a thing as I myself.
I was born free as Cæsar : so were you :
We both have fed as well, and we can both
Endure the winter's cold as well as he :
For once upon a raw and gusty day,
The troubled Tiber chafing with her shores,
Cæsar said to me, "Dar'st thou, Cassius, now
Leap in with me into this angry flood
And swim to yonder point ?" Upon the word,
Accoutred as I was, I plunged in,
And bade him follow : so, indeed, he did.
The torrent roar'd ; and we did buffet it
With lusty sinews ; throwing it aside
And stemming it with hearts of controversy ;
But ere we could arrive the point propos'd,
Cæsar cried, "Help me, Cassius, or I sink".

Should I then boast? Where lies that foot of ground,
Within his whole realm, that I have not past,
Fighting and conquering? Far then from me
Be ostentation. I could tell the world,
How I have laid his kingdom desolate,
By this sole arm, propp'd by divinity:
Stript him out of his glories; and have sent
The pride of all his youth to people graves;
And made his virgins languish for their loves;
If I would brag. Should I, that have the power
To teach the neighbour world humility,
Mix with vain-glory?

“LIFE IS ONE.”

Which when these heard,
The might of gentleness so conquered them,
The priests themselves scattered their altar-flames
And flung away the steel of sacrifice :
And through the land next day passed a decree
Proclaimed by criers, and in this wise graved
On rock and column : “Thus the King’s will is :—
There hath been slaughter for the sacrifice
And slaying for the meat : but henceforth none
Shall spill the blood of life, nor taste of flesh,
Seeing that knowledge grows, and life is one,
And mercy cometh to the merciful.”
So ran the edict, and from those days forth
Sweet peace hath spread between all living kind,
Men and the beasts which serve him, and the birds,
On all those banks of Gunga where our Lord
Taught with his saintly pity and soft speech.

THE SILENT VOICES.

When the dumb hour, clothed in black,
Brings the dreams about my bed,
Call me not so often back,
Silent voices of the dead,
Toward the lowland ways behind me,
And the sunlight that is gone !
Call me rather, silent voices,
Forward to the starry track
Glimmering up the heights beyond me,
On, and always on !

ATALANTA.

Lo now, see
If one of all you these things vex at all.
Would God that any of you had all the praise,
And I no manner of memory when I die,
So might I show before her perfect eyes
Pure, whom I follow, a maiden to my death.—
But for the rest let all have all they will :
For is it a grief to you that I have part,
Being woman merely, in your male might and deeds
Done by main strength ? Yet in my body is throned
As great a heart, and in my spirit, O men,
I have not less of godlike. Evil it were
That one a coward should mix with you, one hand Fearful, one eye abase itself ; and these
Well might ye hate and well revile, not me.

ANIMULAE FUGACI.

[On a Portrait.]

Beautiful, unattainable and free,
This nymph, the Muses' and the Graces' child,
That of her arts the Cyprian had beguiled
Haunted the groves and streams of Arcady ;
Or by the caverns of the Western Sea
She meditated music, fierce or mild
While to the rhythm of ocean, calm or wild
Her soul attuned its passionate harmony.
And oft, beneath the pitiless eye of dawn,
The early shepherd, summoned by the shrill
Persuasive pipe of Pan, beside the rill
Halting his flock, 'twixt parted reeds would see
Her fugitive vision soon, too soon, withdrawn,
And count that moment immortality.

SOHRAB AND RUSTUM.

As when some hunter in the spring hath found
A breeding eagle sitting on her nest,
Upon the craggy isle of a hill-lake,
And pierced her with an arrow as she rose,
And follow'd her to find her where she fell
Far off;—anon her mate comes winging back
From hunting, and a great way off descries
His huddling young left sole; at that, he checks
His pinion, and with short uneasy sweeps
Circles above his eyry, with loud screams
Chiding his mate back to her nest; but she
Lies dying, with the arrow in her side,
In some far stony gorge out of his ken,
A heap of fluttering feathers—never more
Shall the lake glass her, flying over it:
Never the black and dripping precipices
Echo her stormy scream as she sails by—
As that poor bird flies home, nor knows its loss,
So Rustum knew not his own loss, but stood
Over his dying son, and knew him not.

A little onward lend thy guiding hand
To these dark steps, a little further on :
For yonder bank hath choice of sun or shade :
There I am wont to sit, when any chance
Relieves me from my task of servile toil,
Daily in the common prison else enjoined me,
Where I, a prisoner chained, scarce freely draw
The air, imprisoned also, close and damp,
Unwholesome draught. But here I feelamends—
The breath of heaven fresh blowing, pure and sweet
With day spring born : here leave me to respire.
This day a solemn feast the people hold
To Dagon, their sea-idol, and forbid
Laborious works. Unwillingly this rest
Their superstition yields me ; hence, with leave Retiring from the popular noise, I seek
This unfrequented place to find some ease—

Ease to the body some, none to the mind
From restless thoughts, that, like a deadly swarm
Of hornets armed, no sooner found alone
But rush upon me thronging, and present
Times past, what once I was, and what am now.
Oh, wherefore was my birth from Heaven foretold
Twice by an angel, who at last, in sight
Of both my parents, all in flames ascended
From off the altar where an offering burned,
As in a fiery column charioting

ON THE VERGE.

Shadows, would we question darkness? Ere our eyes and brows be fanned

Round with airs of twilight, washed with dews from sleep's eternal stream,

Would we know sleep's guarded secret? Ere the fire consume the brand,

Would it know if yet its ashes may requicken? Yet we deem

Surely man may know, or ever night unyoke her starry team,

What the dawn shall be, or if the dawn shall be not: yea,
the scroll

Would we read of sleep's dark scripture, pledge of peace or doom of dole.

Ah, but here man's heart leaps, yearning toward the gloom with venturous glee,

Though his pilot eye behold nor bay nor harbour, rock
nor shoal,

From the shore that hath no shore beyond it set in all the sea.

MANOA.

O miserable change ! Is this the man,
That invincible Samson, far renowned,
The dread of Israel's foes, who with a strength
Equivalent to Angels' walked their streets,
None offering fight : who, single combatant,
Duelled their armies ranked in proud array,
Himself an army—now unequal match
To save himself against a coward armed
At one spear's length ? O ever failing trust
In mortal strength ! and, oh, what not in man
Deceivable and vain ? Nay, what thing good
Prayed for, but often proves our woe, our bane ?
I prayed for children, and thought barrenness
In wedlock a reproach ; I gained a son,
And such a son as all men hailed me happy :
Who would be now a father in my stead ?

Oh, wherefore did God grant me my request,
And as a blessing with such pomp adorned ?
Why are His gifts desirable, to tempt
Our earnest prayers, then, given with solemn hand
As graces, draw a scorpion's tail behind ?
For this did the Angel twice descend ? for this
Ordained thy nurture holy, as of a plant
Select and sacred ? glorious for a while,
The miracle of men ; then in an hour
Ensnared, assaulted, overcome, led bound,
Thy foes' derision, captive, poor and blind,
Into a dungeon thrust, to work with slaves !
Alas ! methinks whom God hath chosen once
To worthiest deeds, if he through frailty err,
He should not so o'erwhelm, and as a thrall
Subject him to so foul indignities,
Be it but for honour's sake of former deeds.

CASSIUS.

CASSIUS. I cannot tell what you and other men
Think of this life ; but, for my single self,
I had as lief not be, as live to be
In awe of such a thing as I myself.
I was born free as Cæsar, so were you ;
We both have fed as well, and we can both
Endure the winter's cold as well as he.
For once upon a raw and gusty day,
The troubled Tiber chafing with her shores,
Cæsar said to me, " Dar'st thou, Cassius, now
Leap in with me into this angry flood,
And swim to yonder point ? "—Upon the word,
Accoutred as I was, I plunged in,
And bid him follow ; so indeed he did.
The torrent roar'd and we did buffet it
With lusty sinews, throwing it aside
And stemming it with hearts of controversy.
But ere we could arrive the point propos'd
Cæsar cried, " Help me, Cassius, or I sink ".

THE SOLDIER'S DREAM.

Our bugles sang truce ; for the night-cloud had low'r'd,
And the sentinel stars set their watch in the sky ;
And thousands had sunk on the ground over-power'd,
The weary to sleep, and the wounded to die.

When reposing that night on my pallet of straw,
By the wolf-scaring faggot that guarded the slain,
At the dead of the night a sweet vision I saw ;
And thrice ere the morning I dreamt it again.

Methought from the battlefield's dreadful array,
Far, far, I had roam'd on a desolate track,
'Twas autumn, and sunshine arose on the way
To the home of my fathers, that welcom'd me back.

I flew to the pleasant fields traversed so oft
In life's morning march, when my bosom was young,
I heard my own mountain-goats bleating aloft,
And knew the sweet strain that the corn-reapers sung.

ΔΙΑ ΠΡΙΣΤΟΤ ΕΛΕΦΑΝΤΟΣ.

Ἐνθα μάχης παῦλαν σαλπίγξαμεν· ὥρυντο γὰρ νύξ,

εὐδε δ’ ὁ κεκμηώς, θυῆσκε δ’ ὁ τραυματίας.
τηνίκα κεκλιμένῳ φαύλης ἐπὶ κοίτῃ ἐρείκης,
φρυκτὸς ὅπου νεκύων ὡμὸν ἀπεῖργε λύκον,
τερψίνοόν μοι ὅναρ μέσσην κατὰ νύκτα παρέστη,
τρὶς δὲ πρὶν ἀντέλλειν ἥλιον αὖθις ἵδον.
καὶ πολέμου γὰρ ἔοικα καὶ αἰνῆς δηϊοτῆτος
τηλόσ’ ἀποπλαγχθεὶς οἰόβατον καθ’ ὁδόν, ἔστηκεν δ’ ἄρ’ ὀπώρᾳ, ὁ δ’ ἥλιος οἴμον ἔλαμπεν
δῶμ’ ἐπὶ πατρῷον παῖδα ποθειὸν ἄγων.
ώρμήθην μὲν ἔπειτα ταχὺς χαρίεντας ἐπ’ ἀγροὺς

καὶ με θεριστήρων τερπνὸν ἔσαινε μέλος.

Then pledged we the wine-cup, and fondly I swore,
From my home and my weeping friends never to part ;
My little ones kissed me a thousand times o'er,
And my wife sobb'd aloud in her fulness of heart.

“Stay—stay with us ! rest !—thou art weary and worn !”
(And fain was their war-broken soldier to stay);
But sorrow return'd with the dawning of morn,
And the voice in my dreaming ear melted away !

THE PASSING OF ARTHUR.

To whom replied King Arthur, much in wrath :
“ Ah, miserable and unkind, untrue,
Unknightly, traitor-hearted ! Woe is me !
Authority forgets a dying king,
Laid widowed of the power in his eye
That bow’d the will. I see thee what thou art,
For thou, the latest-left of all my knights,
In whom should meet the offices of all,
Thou would’st betray me for the precious hilt :
Either from lust of gold, or like a girl
Valuing the giddy pleasure of the eyes.
Yet, for a man may fail in duty twice,
And the third time may prosper, get thee hence :
But if thou spare to fling Excalibur,
I will arise and slay thee with my hands.”

CIPRIANO, LUCIFER.

CIPR. And you have travell'd much ?

LUC. Ay, little else,

One may say, since I came into the world
Than going up and down it : visiting
As many men and cities as Ulysses,
From first his leaving Troy without her crown,
Along the charnièd coasts he pass'd, with all
The Polyphemes and Circes in the way,
Right to the pillars where his ship went down. . . .

CIPR. One place, however, where Ulysses was,
I think you have not been to—where he saw
Those he left dead upon the fields of Troy
Come one by one to lap the bowl of blood
Set for them in the fields of Asphodel.

LUC. Humph !—as to that, a voyage which if all
Must take, less need to brag of ; or perchance
Ulysses, or his poet, apt to err
About the people and their doings there—

No more of this! Here I pronounce him traitor,
The direct plotter of my death, that names
Or thinks her for my sister: 'Tis a lye,
The most malicious of the world, invented
To mad your king. He that will say so next,
Let him draw out his sword and sheathe it here;
It is a sin fully as pardonable.
She is no kin to me, nor shall she be:
If she were ever, I create her none.
And which of you can question this? My power
Is like the sea, that is to be obey'd,
And not disputed with. I have decreed her
As far from having part of blood with me,
As the naked Indians. Come and answer me,
He that is boldest now: Is that my sister?

MAR. Oh, this is fine!

SOHRAB AND RUSTUM.

As when some hunter in the spring hath found
A breeding eagle sitting on her nest,
Upon the craggy isle of a hill-lake,
And pierced her with an arrow as she rose,
And follow'd her to find her where she fell
Far off;—anon her mate comes winging back
From hunting, and a great way off descries
His huddling young left sole; at that, he checks
His pinion, and with short uneasy sweeps
Circles above his eyry, with loud screams
Chiding his mate back to her nest; but she
Lies dying, with the arrow in her side,
In some far stony gorge out of his ken,
A heap of fluttering feathers—never more
Shall the lake glass her, flying over it;
Never the black and dripping precipices
Echo her stormy scream as she sails by—
As that poor bird flies home, nor knows his loss,
So Rustum knew not his own loss, but stood
Over his dying son, and knew him not.

After a while I saw the son of Valdez
Rush by with flaring torch : he likewise entered.
There was another and a longer pause ;
And once, methought, I heard the clash of swords !
And soon the son of Valdez reappeared :
He flung his torch towards the moon in sport,
And seemed as he were mirthful ! I stood listening,
Impatient for the footsteps of my husband !

TITHONUS.

The woods decay, the woods decay and fall,
The vapours weep their burthen to the ground,
Man comes and tills the field and lies beneath,
And after many a summer dies the swan.

Me only cruel immortality
Consumes : I wither slowly in thine arms,
Here at the quiet limit of the world,
A white-hair'd shadow roaming like a dream
The ever-silent spaces of the East,
Far-folded mists, and gleaming halls of morn.

Alas ! for this grey shadow, once a man—
So glorious in his beauty and thy choice,
Who madest him thy chosen, that he seem'd
To his great heart none other than a God !
I ask'd thee, “Give me immortality”.
Then did'st thou grant mine asking with a smile,
Like wealthy men who care not how they give.

MARY STUART.

Sirs, whom by strange constraint I stand before,
My lords, and not my judges, since no law
Can hold to mortal judgment answerable
A princess free-born of all courts on earth,
I rise not here to make response as one
Responsible toward any for my life
Or of mine acts accountable to man,
Who see none higher save only God in heaven :
I am no natural subject of your land
That I should here plead as a criminal charged,
Nor in such wise appear I now ; I came
On your queen's faith to seek in England help
By troth-plight pledged me ; where by promise-breach
I am even since then her prisoner held in ward :
Yet, understanding by report of you
Some certain things I know not of to be Against me brought on record, by my will
I stand content to hear and answer these.

Ca' them whaur' the heather grows,
Ca' them whaur' the burnie rows,

Hark the mavis' evening sang
Sounding Clouden's woods amang,
Then a-faulding let us gang
    My bonnie dearie.

We'll gae doun by Clouden's side
Thro' the hazels spreading wide,
O'er the waves that sweetly glide,
    To the moon sae clearly.

Yonder Clouden's silent towers
When at moonshine midnight hours,
O'er the dewy bending flowers
    Fairies dance sae cheerie.

CANTERBURY.

Therefore doth Heaven divide
The state of man in divers functions,
Setting endeavour in continual motion ;
To which is fixed, as an aim or butt,
Obedience ; for so work the honey bees,
Creatures, that by a rule in Nature teach
The act of order to a peopled kingdom.
They have a king and officers of sorts ;
While some, like magistrates, correct at home,
Others, like merchants, venture trade abroad ;
Others, like soldiers, armed in their stings,
Make boot upon the summer's velvet buds ;
Which pillage they with merry march bring home
To the tent-royal of their emperor.

HELENA, KING.

HEL. What I can do can do no hurt to try,
Since you set up your rest 'gainst remedy :
He that of greatest works is finisher
Oft does them by the weakest minister :
So holy writ in babes hath judgment shown,
When judges have been babes ; great floods have flown
From simple sources ; and great seas have dried,
When miracles have by the greatest been denied.
Oft expectation fails, and most oft there
Where most it promises ; and oft it hits,
Where hope is coldest, and despair most sits.
KING. I must not hear thee ; fare thee well, kind maid ;
Thy pains, not us'd, must by thyself be paid :
Proffers, not took, reap thanks for their reward.

CHATILLON.

With him along is come the mother-queen,
An Até, stirring him to blood and strife ;
With her, her niece, the Lady Blanche of Spain
With them a bastard of the king's deceased ;
And all the unsettled humours of the land,—
Rash, inconsiderate, fiery voluntaries,
With ladies' faces, and fierce dragons' spleens,—
Have sold their fortunes at their native homes,
Bearing their birth-rights proudly on their backs,
To make a hazard of new fortunes here.
In brief, a braver choice of dauntless spirits,
Than now the English bottoms have waft o'er,
Did never float upon the swelling tide,
To do offence, and seath, in Christendom.
The interruption of their churlish drums
Cuts off more circumstance. They are at hand,
To parley or to fight ; therefore prepare.

For ask at Argos, ask in Lacedaemon,
Whose people, when the Heracleidae came,
Were hunted out, and to Achaia fled,
Whether is better, to abide alone,
A wolfish band, in a dispeopled realm,
Or conquerors with conquer'd to unite
Into one puissant folk, as he design'd ?
These sturdy and unworn Messenian tribes,
Who shook the fierce Neleidae on their throne,
Who to the invading Dorians stretch'd a hand,
And half bestow'd, half yielded up their soil—
He would not let his savage chiefs alight,

Then, gorged and helpless, be assail'd and slain.

Night followed, clad with stars. On every side
More horribly the multitudinous streams
Of ocean's mountainous waste, to mutual war
Rushed in dark tumult thundering, as to mock
The calm and spangled sky. . . . At midnight
The moon arose: and lo! the ethereal cliffs
Of Caucasus, whose icy summits shone
Among the stars like sunlight, and around
Whose caverned base the whirl-pools and the waves
Bursting and eddying irresistibly,
Rage and resound for ever.

MESSENGER.

Then the priest
Set to the flower-sweet snow of her soft throat
The sheer knife's edge that severed it, and loosed
From the fair bondage of so spotless flesh
So strong a spirit; and all that girt them round
Gazing, with souls that hung on that sad stroke,
Groaned, and kept silence after while a man
Might count how far the fresh blood crept, and bathed
How deep the dark robe, and the bright shrine's base
Red-rounded with a running ring that grew
More large and duskier as the wells that fed
Were drained of that pure effluence; but the queen
Groaned not nor spake, nor wept, but as a dream
Floats out of eyes awakening, so past forth
Ghost-like, a shadow of sorrow, from all sight
To the inner court and chamber where she sits
Dumb, till word reach her of this whole day's end.

THE CHOIR INVISIBLE.

O may I join the choir invisible,
Of those immortal dead who live again
In minds made better by their presence : live
In pulses stirred to generosity,
In deeds of daring rectitude—in scorn
For miserable aims that end with self,
In thoughts sublime that pierce the night like stars,
And with their mild persistence urge man's search
To vaster issues.

CORIOLANUS.

O World, thy slippery turns ! Friends now fast sworn,
Whose double bosoms seem to wear one heart,
Whose hours, whose bed, whose meal, and exercise,
Are still together, who twin, as 'twere, in love
Unseparable, shall within this hour,
On a dissention of a doit, break out
To bitterest enmity : so, fellest foes,
Whose passions and whose plots have broke their sleep
To take the one the other, by some chance,
Some trick not worth an egg, shall grow dear friends,
And interjoin their issues.

RENUNCIATION.

Come not when I am dead,
To drop thy foolish tears upon my grave,
To trample round my fallen head,
And vex the unhappy dust thou would'st not save.
There let the wind sweep, and the plover cry ;
    But thou, go by.

Child, if it were thine error or thy crime
I care no longer, being all unblest :
Wed whom thou wilt, but I am sick of Time,
And I desire to rest.
Pass on, weak heart, and leave me where I lie :
    Go by, go by.

I grant I am a woman ; but withal,
A woman that Lord Brutus took to wife :
I grant I am a woman ; but withal,
A woman well-reputed,—Cato's daughter.
Think you I am no stronger than my sex,
Being so father'd and so husbanded ?
Tell me your counsels. I will not disclose them :
I have made strong proof of my constancy,
Giving myself a voluntary wound
Here, in the thigh : Can I bear that with patience,
And not my husband's secrets ?

BRU. O ye gods !
Render me worthy of this noble wife !
Hark, hark ! one knocks. Portia, go in awhile :
And by and bye thy bosom shall partake

DEPARTED DAYS.

Yes, dear, departed, cherished days,
Could Memory's hand restore
Your morning light, your evening rays,
From Time's grey urn once more :
Then might this restless heart be still,
This straining eye might close,
And Hope her fainting pinions fold,
While the fair phantoms rose.

But, like a child in ocean's arms,
We strive against the stream,
Each moment further from the shore
Where life's young fountains gleam :
Each moment fainter wave the fields,
And wider rolls the sea ;
The mist grows dark—the sun goes down—
Day breaks—and where are we ?

PROMETHEUS.

Evil minds

Change good to their own nature. I gave all
He has ; and in return he chains me here
Years, ages, night and day ; whether the sun
Split my parched skin, or in the moony night
The crystal-winged snow cling round my hair :
Whilst my beloved race is trampled down
By his thought-executing ministers.

Such is the tyrant's recompense ; 'tis just :
He who is evil can receive no good ;
And for a world bestowed, or a friend lost,
He can feel hate, fear, shame ; not gratitude :
He but requites me for his own misdeed.
Kindness to such is keen reproach, which breaks
With bitter stings the light sleep of Revenge.

MEMORY.

When to the sessions of sweet silent thought
I summon up remembrance of things past,
I sigh the lack of many a thing I sought,
And with old woes new wail my dear time's waste ;
Then can I drown an eye, unused to flow,
For precious friends hid in death's dateless night,
And weep afresh love's long-since-cancell'd woe,
And moan the expense of many a vanish'd sight.

Then can I grieve at grievances foregone,
And heavily from woe to woe tell o'er
The sad account of fore-bemoanèd moan,
Which I new pay as if not paid before :
But if the while I think on thee, dear Friend,
All losses are restor'd, and sorrows end.

ULYSSES.

My comrades are a chosen company
Of men likeminded with me to forswear
Inglorious ease and tame domestic joys,
Fired by a free and generous hardihood
And reckless longing to behold what lands,
What seas, may lie, from mortal knowledge hid,

Beyond the fabled gates of Hercules ;
Till, having through unnumbered perils passed,
And gained experience of new coasts and isles,
Mountains and constellations new, our helm,
Not though I bid them, would they homeward turn,

But even sail right on, like noble eagle,
That bird who, when he feels his death approach,
Doth fix his eye against the sun, and lift
His last flight towards its glory, till his wings
Faint, and he falleth stark and lifeless down.

THE ODYSSEY.

As one that for a weary space has lain,
Lulled by the song of Circe and her wine,
In gardens near the pale of Proserpine,
Where that Aeaean isle forgets the main,
And only the low lutes of love complain,
And only shadows of wan lovers pine.

As such an one were glad to know the brine
Salt on his lips, and the large air again,
So gladly, from the songs of modern speech
Men turn, and see the stars, and feel the free
Shrill wind beyond the close of heavy flowers,
And through the music of the languid hours,
They hear like ocean on a western beach
The surge and thunder of the Odyssey.

EARL DOORM.

At this he turn'd all red and paced his hall,
Now gnaw'd his under, now his upper lip,
And coming up close to her, said at last :
“ Girl, for I see ye scorn my courtesies,
Take warning : yonder man is surely dead ;
And I compel all creatures to my will.
Not eat nor drink ? And wherefore wail for one,
Who put your beauty to this flout and scorn
By dressing it in rags ? Amazed am I,
Beholding how ye butt against my wish,
That I forbear you thus : cross me no more.
At least put off to please me this poor gown,
This silken rag, this beggar-woman's weed :
I love that beauty should go beautifully :
For see ye not my gentlewomen here,
How gay, how suited to the house of one
Who loves that beauty should go beautifully ?
Rise therefore ; robe yourself in this : obey.”

TAM GLEN.

My heart is a-breaking, dear Tittie !
Some counsel unto me come len',
To anger them a' is a pity,
But what will I do wi' Tam Glen ?

I'm thinking wi' sic a braw fellow,
In poortith I might make a fen' ;
What care I in riches to wallow,
If I mauna marry Tam Glen ?

There's Lowrie the Laird o' Dumeller,
" Guid day to you, brute !" he comes ben :
He brags and he blaws o' his siller,
But when will he dance like Tam Glen ?

My minnie does constantly deave me,
And bids me beware o' young men ;
They flatter, she says, to deceive me,
But wha can think sae o' Tam Glen ?

ΦΙΛΙΝΟΣ.

Μαῖα φίλα, θυμαλγὲς ἐμὶν ἄχος εἰς φρένας ἥνθε· πῶς δ' ἀν ἀποστέρξαιμι τὸν ἴμερόεντα Φιλίνον;

ἄγρὸς ἔχων πατρώος Ἀμύντιχος ὁ Φρασιδάμω

σιγῇ δ' ὄκκα Φιλίνω ἐναντία ποσσὶ χορεύῃ.

τίς δέ κε πιστεύσειεν ἐμῶ κατὰ ταῦτα Φιλίνω;

My daddie says, gin I'll forsake him,
He'll gie me guid hunder marks ten :
But, if it's ordain'd I maun take him,
O wha will I get but Tam Glen ?

Yestreen at the Valentine's dealing,
My heart to my mou' gied a sten ;
For thrice I drew ane without failing,
And thrice it was written—Tam Glen.

The last Halloween I was waukin
My droukit sark-sleeve, as ye ken,
His likeness cam up the house staukin,
And the very grey breeks o' Tam Glen !

Come counsel, dear Tittie ! don't tarry—
I'll gie you my bonnie black hen,
Gif ye will advise me to marry
The lad I lo'e dearly, Tam Glen.

THE ONLY SON.

O bitter wind toward the sunset blowing,
What of the dales to-night?
In yonder grey old hall what fires are glowing,
What ring of festal light?

*"In the great window as the day was dwindling
I saw an old man stand;
His head was proudly held and his eyes kindling,
But the list shook in his hand."*

O wind of twilight, was there no word uttered,
No sound of joy or wail?
*"A great fight and a good death,' he muttered;
'Trust him, he would not fail.'*"

What of the chamber dark where she was lying
For whom all life is done?
*"Within her heart she rocks a dead child, crying
'My son, my little son.'*"

ROSE AYLMER.

May weep, but never see,
A night of memories and of sighs
I consecrate to thee.

HAPPY INSENSIBILITY.

In a drear-nighted December,
Too happy, happy tree,
Thy branches ne'er remember
Their green felicity :
The north cannot undo them
With a sleety whistle through them,
Nor frozen thawings glue them
From budding at the prime.

In a drear-nighted December,
Too happy, happy brook,
Thy bubblings ne'er remember
Apollo's summer look ;
But with a sweet forgetting
They stay their crystal fretting,
Never, never petting
About the frozen time.

A gentle girl and boy !
But were there ever any,
Writhed not at passèd joy ?
To know the change and feel it,
When there is none to heal it
Nor numbèd sense to steal it—
Was never said in rhyme.

ROMEO.

O my love, my wife,
Death that hath sucked the honey of thy breath
Hath had no power yet upon thy beauty.
Thou art not conquer'd ; beauty's ensign yet
Is crimson in thy lips and in thy cheeks,
And death's pale flag is not advanced there.
Tybalt, liest thou there in thy bloody sheet ?
O, what more favour can I do to thee,
Than with that hand that cut thy youth in twain
To sunder his that was thine enemy ?
Forgive me, cousin ! Ah ! dear Juliet,
Why art thou yet so fair ? Shall I believe
That unsubstantial Death is amorous,
And that the lean abhorred monster keeps
Thee here in dark to be his paramour ?
For fear of that, I still will stay with thee,
And never from this palace of dim night
Depart again : here, here will I remain
With worms that are thy chamber-maids ; O, here
Will I set up my everlasting rest,
And shake the yoke of inauspicious stars
From this world-wearied flesh.

On thy cold gray stones, O sea !
And I would that my tongue could utter
The thoughts that arise in me.

O well for the fisherman's boy,
That he shouts with his sister at play !
O well for the sailor lad,
That he sings in his boat on the bay !

And the stately ships go on
To their haven under the hill ;
But O for the touch of a vanish'd hand,
And the sound of a voice that is still !

At the foot of thy crags, O sea !
But the tender grace of a day that is dead
Will never come back to me.

AMORET.

Then hear me, Heaven, to whom I call for right,
And you, fair twinkling stars, that crown the night ;
And hear me, woods, and silence of this place,
And ye, sad hours, that move a sullen pace ;
Hear me, ye shadows, that delight to dwell
In horrid darkness, and ye powers of hell,
Whilst I breathe out my last ! I am that maid,
That yet-untamèd Amoret, that play'd
The careless prodigal, and gave away
My soul to this young man, that now dares say
I am a stranger, not the same. But why
Do I resolve to grieve, and not to die ?
Happy had been the stroke thou gav'st, if home ;
By this time had I found a quiet room,
Where every slave is free, and every breast,
That living bred new care, now lies at rest.

LAODAMIA.

“Great Jove, Laodamia ! doth not leave
His gifts imperfect :—spectre though I be,
I am not sent to scare thee or deceive ;
But in reward of thy fidelity.

And something also did my worth obtain ;
For fearless virtue bringeth boundless gain.

Thou know’st, the Delphic oracle foretold
That the first Greek who touched the Trojan strand
Should die ; but me the threat could not withhold :
A generous cause a victim did demand ;
And forth I leapt upon the sandy plain ;
A self-devoted chief—by Hector slain.

And while my youthful peers, before my eyes
(Each hero following his peculiar bent)
Prepared themselves for glorious enterprise
By martial sports,—or, seated in the tent,
Chieftains and Kings in council were detained ;
What time the fleet at Aulis lay enchain'd.

ΛΑΟΔΑΜΕΙΑ.

Αλλ' ἵσθ' ὅτι Ζεὺς δῶρον οὐ δοῦναι φιλεῖ
πλὴν εἰ τέλειον· οὐδέ ἐγὼ σκιά περ ὡν
ἥκω φοβήσων οὐδέ σ' ἐκκλέψων λόγοις,
τῆς σῆς δὲ πίστεως πρῶτον ἐκτίνων χάριν,
ἔπειτα χρηστὸς χρηστὰ δὴ καρπούμενος·
τόλμαν δ' ἄτλητον κέρδος ἀσπετον μένει.
αὐτὴ γὰρ οἶδας ὡς τὸ Πυθικὸν θεοῦ
μαντεῖον ἔξεφηνεν ὡς χρείη θανεῖν
τὸν πρῶτον ἐμβαίνοντα τῆς Τροίας χθονός, ὅμως δ' ἐτόλμησ'. ἦν γὰρ ἀξιον θανεῖν·
αὐτός γ' ἀπάντων πρῶτος ἐκπηδᾶν νεώς, αὐθαίρετον πρόσφαγμ' ὑφ' "Ἐκτορος δαμείς.

βουλὰς πυκνὰς ὕφαινον, εὗτ' ἐν Λύλιδι
νῆες κατεσχόλαζον ἀπλοίας χάριν.

The wished-for wind was given :—I then revolved
The oracle, upon the silent sea ;
And, if no worthier led the way, resolved
That of a thousand vessels, mine should be
The foremost prow in pressing to the strand,—
Mine the first blood that tinged the Trojan sand.

Yet bitter, oft-times bitter, was the pang
When of thy loss I thought, belovèd Wife !
On thee too fondly did my memory hang,
And on the joys we shared in mortal life,—
The paths which we had trod—these fountains—flowers ;
My new-planned cities, and unfinished towers.

But should suspense permit the Foe to cry,
'Behold they tremble !—haughty their array,
Yet of their number no one dares to die' ?
In soul I swept the indignity away :
Old frailties then recurred :—but lofty thought,
In act embodied, my deliverance wrought."

THE NILE.

Out of the unknown South,
Through the dark lands of drouth,
Far wanders ancient Nile in slumber gliding :
    Clear-mirrored in his dream
    The deeds that haunt his stream
Flash out and fade like stars in midnight sliding.
    Long since, before the life of man
        Rose from among the lives that creep,
    With Time's own tide began
        That still mysterious sleep,
Only to cease when Time shall reach the eternal deep.

From out his vision vast
The early gods have passed,
They waned and perished with the faith that made them ;
The long phantasmal line
    Of Pharaohs crowned divine
Are dust among the dust that once obeyed them.

Their land is one mute burial mound,
Save when across the drifted years
Some chant of hollow sound,
Some triumph blent with tears,
From Memnon's lips at dawn wakens the desert meres.

O Nile, and can it be
No memory dwells with thee
Of Grecian lore and the sweet Grecian singer ?
The legions' iron tramp,
The Goths' wide-wandering camp,
Had these no fame that by thy shore might linger ?
Nay, then must all be lost indeed,
Lost too the swift pursuing might
That cleft with passionate speed
Aboukir's tranquil night,
And shattered in mid-swoop the great world-eagle's flight.

Yet have there been on earth
Spirits of starry birth,
Whose splendour rushed to no eternal setting :
They over all endure,
Their course through all is sure,
The dark world's light is still of their begetting.
Though the long past forgotten lies,
Nile ! in thy dream remember him,
Whose like no more shall rise
Above our twilight's rim,
Until the immortal dawn shall make all glories dim.

ἀθανάτης Ἔω τὰ θνητὰ φῶς ἀποσβέσῃ φάη.

For this man was not great
By gold or kingly state,
Or the bright sword, or knowledge of earth's wonder ;
But more than all his race
He saw life face to face,
And heard the still small voice above the thunder.
O river, while thy waters roll
By yonder vast deserted tomb,
There, where so clear a soul
So shone through gathering doom,
Thou and thy land shall keep the tale of lost Khartoum.

Music, when soft voices die,
Vibrates in the memory ;

Live within the sense they quicken.

And so thy thoughts when thou art gone,
Love itself shall slumber on.

MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB.

Mary had a little lamb,
Its fleece was white as snow,
And everywhere that Mary went
The lamb was sure to go.
It followed her to school one day—
Which was against the rule—
It made the children laugh and play
To see a lamb at school.
The teacher therefore turned it out ;
But still it lingered near,
And on the grass it played about
Till Mary did appear.
“ What makes the lamb love Mary so ? ”
The eager children cry.
“ Why, Mary loves the lamb, you know,”
The teacher did reply.
